SETTLEMENT FOR THE COUNTY

County Treasurer A. W. Fielder yesterday made his second settlement with State Controller Colgan for State taxes received on the second installment from Tax Collector J. B. Barber. The amount of the settlement was $100,675.52. This will be apportioned to the various State funds. The State General Fund will receive $2,604,492. The rest will be distributed among the other funds. The amount of taxes received by Treasurer Fielder on the second installment was $260,397.52. Subtracting from this sum the amount of State taxes delivered to Controller Colgan, it leaves $90,118.81 to be distributed among the various county funds. This will keep all of the funds in good shape for some months to come. There is a shortage in the Indigent fund owing to the fact that the State Board of Examiners has not yet reported upon the bills in that fund for two years. The State owes $18,000.

STILL VOING FOR BISHOPS.

Methodist Conference Strengthens its Episcopacy.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Licensed Wire.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The result of the sixth ballot for two additional bishops was announced this morning to the Methodist General Conference at the Hotel Hamilton. Henry Spelmeyer, 200; J. P. Berry, 262; D. H. Moore, 237; J. W. Hamilton, 224; W. V. Kelley, 217; J. E. Bowen, 37; B. Neeley, 16. Others from one to thirteen votes each.

A buzz of excitement came from the delegates when the heavy increase in Dr. Spelmeyer's vote was noted, putting the Newark pastor for the first time far ahead in the race for the episcopacy.

Dr. J. M. Buckley, as chairman of the New York East delegation, then withdrew Dr. W. V. Kelley's name, saying that for family reasons the editor of the Methodist Review requested his friends to no longer vote for him. A considerable discussion the seventh ballot was then taken.

Debate on the question of electing two additional bishops to Asia, which was under consideration yesterday, was then resumed.

After Dr. Kelley had closed the debate the question was put on passage, and by practically a unanimous vote the committee's report was adopted. This provides for two additional bishops, one for Asia, the same to be co-ordinate in authority.

The eighth ballot resulted as follows: Spelmeyer, 372; Berry, 335; Moore, 283; J. W. Hamilton, 248; Neeley, 37; Bowen, 27; C. Little, 18. Others from one to eleven votes.

The result of the seventh ballot was then read, as follows: H. Spelmeyer, 372; J. P. Berry, 264; D. H. Moore, 237; J. W. Hamilton, 225; J. W. E. Bowen, 41; T. B. Neeley, 24. Others from one to twelve each. Necessary to choice, 486.

The eighth ballot resulted as follows: Spelmeyer, 372; Berry, 335; Moore, 283; J. W. Hamilton, 248; Neeley, 37; Bowen, 27; C. Little, 18. Others from one to eleven votes. Necessary to choice, 486.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The Methodist Episcopal General Conference took three more ballots today for two additional bishops, but without result. Dr. Henry Spelmeyer of Newark, N. J., and Dr. J. P. Berry of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, are now, however, far ahead in the voting, and though many believe it may require several more ballots to elect friends of the two leading candidates are confident that they will be successful. A feature of today's balloting was the withdrawal of the names of Dr. W. V. Kelley and J. W. E. Bowen, the latter the colored candidate.

AN ADVENTURE.

Three smart young men and three nice girls. All lovers true as steel—Decided in a friendly way To spend the day a-wheel. They started in the early morn. And nothing seemed amiss. And when they reached the leafy lanes They rode in like this!

They wandered by the verdant dale. Beside the rippling rill; They heard the song bird's trill. They sped through many a woodland glade; The wood was full of bliss—And when they rested in the shade They sat intwined like this!

The sun went down and evening came. A lot too soon, they said; Too long they tarried on the way. The clouds grew black overhead. Down dashed the rain! They homeward flew. Till one unlucky miss Slipped sideways—Craah! Great Scoot! The lot Were all mixed like this! —California Curio.

WHEN YOU HEAR THE ROBIN CALL.

You may read it "May" on the calendar. You may fix your heart on spring. You may hear the robin's trill. You will find it's no such thing! For he's sure just when the snow flies. And he knows spring's secrets all. You may be sure 'tis May-time When you hear the robin call!

They'll tell you the winter's ended—You will hear it everywhere Just for a little sunshine And a breath of April air. But you may be sure of one thing. You may be sure 'tis May-time When you hear the robin call!

—Rough Marching in NATAL. In the course of the fearful march to the Irish fustlers from Dundee to Ladysmith the men were most fatigued owing to the rough journey.

BOTH BOYS AND ELEPHANT

Thirty years ago one of the famous elephants that traveled in this country was "Old Columbus." During one of his summer trips through Virginia, he stopped at the town of D— in the neighboring town of H— a family formerly called "Dave," an notorious for leadership in all kinds of mischievous tricks, determined to show off before the other boys at "Old Columbus" expense, and invited several of his companions to go with him. Having come to the elephant's stable Dave gave him first candy, then cake, and finally cried: "Now, boys," and slipped a piece of tobacco into his proboscis, intending to get out of danger and enjoy "Old Columbus" disgust and anger. But before he could move Columbus seized him and whirled him upward through the opening overhead against the roof of the stable. Unhurt by his unexpected "rise" Dave dropped on the haymow. The other boys below, supposing this to be the "trick" promised them, cried out in admiration: "Dave, Dave, do that again!" Dave, comfortably seated out of harm's way, earnestly replied: "No, boys. I only do that trick once a day." —Richmond Dispatch.

EVERYTHING IS WRONG IN CITY.

Councilman Girard Says the Officials are Blockheads.

"EVERYTHING IS WRONG WITH THIS CITY. THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS AND THE CITY COUNCIL IS WRONG AND THE PEOPLE HAVE NO CONFIDENCE IN EITHER BODY. WE'RE A LOT OF BLOCKHEADS, AND I TELL YOU THE PEOPLE WILL NEVER VOTE FOR BONDS WITH THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION. I DON'T MAKE ANY EXCEPTION OF MYSELF. I'M JUST LIKE THE REST OF YOU."

The foregoing denouncement was made by Councilman Girard at the meeting last evening of the Council Committee on Ordinance and Judiciary during the discussion in regard to sweeping the streets by hand.

The ordinance calling for bids for sweeping the streets by machinery was under consideration, and a committee from the Merchants' Exchange asked that bids be received for hand sweeping also.

"We suggest the advisability of bids for sweeping both ways," said Secretary Walker of the Merchants' Exchange. "The City Council asked for bids for sweeping both ways, but the price asked was too high and the bids were rejected. We don't feel that with the present financial condition of the city we should have all the sweeping done by hand, but as the streets are now swept at night, they remain clean only from midnight till about 1 o'clock in the morning. We would have Broadway and the streets from Seventh to Fourteenth and Fourteenth streets, from Clay to Franklin, swept by hand. We recognize that the people on other streets have the same rights, but the hand sweeping is not so necessary as on other thoroughfares. In the blocks I have named there are only a mile and a half, and the only additional expense to the city would be the difference between machine and hand sweeping for that distance."

"When would you have the streets swept if not at night?" asked Schaffer. "In the daytime," answered Walker. "It would only take five men and I don't think it would cost more than $20 a day. Under the present schedule it costs the city $125 a month for each mile to sweep by machinery."

"Then Girard made his charge that the Council was composed of a lot of blockheads. 'I have just come from the East,' said he. 'and I didn't find a progressive city that didn't have its contract for sweeping the streets by hand and machinery. New York, Chicago, all of the progressive cities have hand sweeping. We are looking for progress and advancement and then we refuse to spend a few thousand dollars to clean the streets. We're a lot of blockheads.' The Clerk of the Merchants' Exchange said that between $375 and $400 a month would be sufficient to sweep the blocks designed by hand. This would mean an increase of $100 or $200 a month over the present system. He asked that the Council try the improvement for three or six months at least."

It was finally recommended to the City

Council that bids be called for for sweeping the streets both ways.

The ordinance granting the Oakland Transit Company franchise for a loop for an electric railway on twenty-third avenue was recommended for passage to print.

Ordinance appropriating $5,780 for homes, harness and hose for fire apparatus in the annexed district and authorizing the employment of firemen were referred to the Police and Fire Commissioners for a report.

The ordinance directing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for sweeping the streets was, on motion of Schaffer, recommended to be indefinitely postponed. Most voting against the motion.

When the Finance Committee met the resolution authorizing the Board of Public Works to rent temporary quarters in Alameda and Golden Gate for the new fire engine was adopted. It being stated that the quarters would not be secured till the engines had arrived from the East.

A resolution, prepared by the Auditor, transferring various funds was recommended for adoption.

At the meeting of the Street Committee the petition of Mrs. P. M. Woodland for a sewer in Laurel street to Piedmont avenue was recommended to be denied.

The petition of the Board of Public Works to allow the widening of the Old Ladies' Home was referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer to draw a resolution of intention.

A City Attorney advised that there were certain questions arising in the Washington street opening, and he suggested that the Board of Public Works determine the matter.

After considerable discussion, the petition of Mrs. P. M. Woodland for a sewer to construct a district sewer at Nineteenth and Jackson streets was laid over to allow Schilling, Francis Cutting and others to appear and be heard before the committee and discuss the matter.

City Engineer Clement recommended that a temporary sewer be constructed and it was decided to have everything in readiness to take final action on the matter at the next meeting.

The adoption was recommended of a resolution of intention to sewer Silver street from thirty-eighth to Forty-second streets to allow the widening of the Old Ladies' Home.

It was recommended that the petition of the Board of Public Works to change the name of Forty-ninth street to Columbus avenue was recommended to be denied.

A resolution of intention was recommended to be adopted to sewer Yosemite street from Hawley street to Fairmont avenue.

It was recommended that Thirteenth street from Jefferson and Clay streets be widened.

The petition to grade, curb, sewer and macadamize East Twenty-third street from Third to the River was recommended to be granted.

The petition to direct the City Engineer to establish the grades on East Eighteenth street from Thirteenth to Twentieth streets was recommended for adoption.

The resolution to sewer Grove street from Thirteenth to Fourteenth streets was recommended for adoption.

The Street Railroad Committee recommended that the Oakland Transit Company be directed to place its tracks on East Twenty-first street from Twenty-second to Twenty-third avenues in the center of the thoroughfare.

The Committee also recommended that the railway company be requested to station its cars at Fourteenth and Washington streets.

The Committee on Wharves and Water Front recommended that sixty days' extension of time be granted to Johnson & Peterson to complete the contract of dredging Lake Merritt.

The bride was Miss Rosa F. Kink, who, although she had known Ballard for several months, had been engaged to him only a few days. As soon as Dr. Peora announced that death was near the girl consented to the ceremony and Deputy County Clerk Baker was induced to issue the marriage license. The strange ceremony was performed by Rev. P. M. Spencer. Ballard came to Oakland from Chicago a year ago in search of health. He is 25 years of age, six years older than his bride.

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1900.

Four Poles died yesterday through drinking wood alcohol. They probably figured that that particular brand had been marketed with the express object of securing their patronage.

The inhabitants of the City of Mexico are said to be in great alarm as a result of three earthquakes they have just had down there. The shakes must have been exceptionally severe, for it takes a good deal to shock them down that way, judging by their plays and literature.

New York sentimentalists have induced the President of the Park Commission to order the interior of the animals' cages at the Zoo painted with home scenes so as to make them more acceptable to the inmates by creating the impression that they are in their native haunts again. Great care will have to be exercised in future in changing the animals from one cage to the other, for all kinds of grievous possibilities might result—for instance, the lion might be accidentally placed amidst the polar bear imitation icebergs and die of a congestive chill before the error was discovered.

But little encouragement is being given to the attempt of the Methodist Conference to have army canteens abolished. There is a general recognition of the right of a soldier to thirst for something else besides glory, and the charges that drunkenness is caused by the present system are ridiculous, for every one knowing anything of army life realizes that the strict canteen regulations against drinking in excess prevent anything of that kind. There will be more lost than gained for morality in abolishing canteens where limitations on drinking are enforced and permitting saloons to spring up all around the outposts as they certainly would.

ENDORSEMENT GOVERNOR GAGE

Now that the State platform of the Republican party is in the hands of the people they can see upon what deserving lines an appeal is made this year to the voters to continue in power the administration that has wrought so much good. The national issues are sufficiently set forth in the brief but thorough endorsement that is given to the work accomplished by President McKinley and though the Democrats are attempting to raise the cry that the vital subjects of the day have been dodged, examination shows that their clasp is as empty upon this occasion as on all others.

There is at least one plank in the platform with which Democrats and Republicans alike should be satisfied and that is where an absolute endorsement is given to the fearless and business-like administration that Governor Gage is giving to the State. His sole object has been to do his duty and how well he has fulfilled his trust will be conclusively shown when two years hence the record is made up of his achievements as Governor. Even now it is plain enough that he has directed everything into the right channels, for with an unswerving desire to keep his ante-election pledge to the people that if he were elected he would conduct the business of the State on purely business lines he has never missed an opportunity to cut down the expenses of administration. The very thing that the Democrats hoped to be able to hold up most against him—the calling of the extra session—has proved one of the happiest coups of his incumbency and his political foes are anxious to avoid all reference to the subject now, for they know that it is regarded by the people as one of the wisest and best-conducted moves ever made from the executive mansion.

Henry T. Gage is making an ideal Governor and the public knowing it will not be bamboozled by those of his enemies who are trying to depict him otherwise. The Republicans in State council have done the right thing in setting the stamp of party approval upon his work, for in doing so they echo the sentiments of all who are willing to pass an honest verdict upon the issue.

PURIFYING THE STAGE.

Every once in a while some seeker for notoriety cries "Purify the Stage." Here it is a backwoods preacher, there it is a sleek and well-fed pastor of the city flock; now it is a soon-to-be forgotten member of the Legislature, then it is a partisan orator in the Councils of the Nation. At this particular time it is a member of Parliament, hailing from the ancient but not universally known borough of Flintshire, England, and bearing the widely-distributed name of Smith. Mr. Smith complains that the character of the plays recently presented in London is distinctly bad—so low, he asserts, that no honest actor will touch them with a pitchfork. They mark, he declares, a decline in the tone of national life.

As Mr. Smith admits that he never has been in a theater he may be excused for his remarks on the ground of ignorance. But it is not about time that these people who by their absurd animadversions on drama and the stage insult the public's intelligence, were either ignored or roundly denounced, as they deserve to be?

The plays of the day are cleaner and far more decent than many of the novels, the demand for which indicates the trend of popular taste. There is no longer any prudish Tommy-rot about the reading public or the patrons of the drama. What we know and talk about in private life we want to see and hear upon the stage, because we are no longer dreamy or romantic. We are realistic and we want blood and not red ink; real glasses and not paste-board counterfeits; real wine and not ginger-ale. Mother Goose has been laid aside for Kipling and Robinson Crusoe for La Terre. Some very good people may regret this, but none the less, it is a fact, and the stage, which has always reflected the mental life of the people, meets the conditions that its patrons require of it. The stage is not for reform, but for amusement. So the foul-minded, coarse-mouthed Cavaliers of Charles II of England and Louis XIV of France, demanded their dramatic meat served rare with the gravy blood-red, and got it, while the sentimentalists of thirty years ago, whose fibres was particularly fine, subsisted on a stage diet of the "Two Orphans," the "Lady of Lyons," and that sort of thing. "Chaque age a son goût," says the French maxim—each age to its taste; and the rule is a universal one.

And after all, we know that the stage has risen. There was a time when to be a "play-actor" was to be a pariah, a vagabond. Today the community of actors and actresses is recruited from the ranks of the best people and they are recognized everywhere as upholders of all that is good and true. They earn their living as lawyers, doctors, editors earn theirs, and have too high a regard for their profession to debate it by lowering its moral tone. And they are better citizens than the Mr. Smiths of Flintshire, and the rest of his kind.

GENERAL MANAGER DIEHL.
Due recognition has been given to the services of an able man in the election of Colonel Charles S. Diehl as general manager of the Associated Press. The news is particularly welcome on this coast where Colonel Diehl is personally known by reason of his having been in charge of the San Francisco office of the Association several years ago. He has worked his way steadily to the front and the bestowal upon him of the highest prize in the gift of the organization speaks volumes for the ability he has displayed. Popular alike with his associates, and those having business relations with him, Colonel Diehl's promotion will receive general endorsement, for it ensures a continuance of the high standard that the Associated Press has maintained since it secured control of the news system of the country.

The Prince of Wales' horses are capturing all the big races in England this year. This is not surprising—everything connected with him has always been more or less fast.

Tord Roberts is said to be advancing his army with what military men call "slipping flanks." This looks more like licking the enemy than anything he has yet done.

GRADUATES AT MISS HORTON'S SCHOOL.
Bright Young Scholars Say Farewell to the Popular Private School.

The third commencement of Miss Horton's School took place last night in the study hall of the institution at the northeast corner of Twelfth and Elbert streets. The apartment was filled with relatives and friends of the students and of the institution, and there was an overflow of visitors in the adjoining classrooms which had been brilliantly illuminated and thrown open to the public. The platform in the exhibition chamber had been embowered in boughs and roses with a background of palms tall and imposing.

In one of the side rooms were displayed innumerable specimens of manual-training work which had been wrought by scholars of the school and which had been given as a present and for still further amplification to the Social Settlement. The hands which designed these articles were youthful in the main, and this fact made the excellence displayed in the workmanship all the more remarkable.

In another side room one of the walls was hung with a tapestry of flaming red and pink geraniums and roses, which, so far from absorbing the rays of the light, glowed with a brilliancy almost indescribable. The odor of flowers pervaded the apartments and everywhere there were young ladies in fetching modest costumes, bright faces and that exuberance of spirit which characterizes commencement. Day until the time for separation arrived.

The title page of the program bore this sentiment: "My daily task, whatever it be, that is what mainly educates me." Beneath these virtues was a golden trefle carrying the initials "M. H. S.," denoting the name and ownership of the school.

THE GRADUATES.
On the last page was printed the class motto, "In hoc Signo Laboremur," and beneath were the names of the class of 1900—seven in number. Six of these were young women. They were attired in the attractive white costume of the fair girl graduate and presented a very pretty appearance as they took their places upon the platform. They were Miss Nellie Bunker, Miss Carlotta Case, Miss Ethelwyn Miles, Miss Mabel Lizzie Pierce, Miss Grace Maria Finney and Miss Gertrude Voorhees.

The young gentleman who had the coveted honor of calling these class mates and of sitting in their midst was Oscar Andreasen Schlesinger.

Sharing the platform with the class was President David Starr Jordan of Stanford, Rev. C. R. Brown of the First Congregational Church of this city, and Miss Horton, the principal of the school. Miss Jessie Elliott rendered a couple of selections on the violin, "Dancia's 'Au Vaire' and Bohm's 'Saraband' in an excellent manner. She was accompanied by Llewellyn A. Hughes.

Lita Schlesinger sang in a sympathetic manner "The Four Clover" and "A Double Loss."

Prayer was offered by Rev. C. R. Brown.

STUDIES INFLUENCE CHARACTER.
Jessie May Fulton read an essay on "Studies Influence Character."
"If education after a minimum," said the essayist, "which all must possess, leads only to the physical development, the tendency will be to loss of pleasure in intellectual enjoyments, the gradual enervation and obliteration of the finer instincts with the result that the nature will become hardened and the character cruel, and finally brutal, while on the other hand the proper association of the great forces of education, the physical and the mental, will exhibit the finest result, a strong, healthy body to sustain a brain of application, thus realizing the full force of the classic motto, 'Mens Sana in corpore sano.'"

"All study should help us to build a character that will return to the world what we have gained from the world. Therefore, if it is true, as our Latin motto says, 'Abundantia Studia Moros' (The effect of our studies passes over into our lives), how careful should we be to pursue such studies as will prove the most powerful agents in the building of our individual characters, the only immortal part in each of us. For knowledge destined to character is more valuable than money. Truly said the wise man said, 'How much better is it to get wisdom than gold and to get wisdom than silver.'"

PLEA FOR SPECIALIZING.
"A Plea for Specializing" was the subject of Mrs. Carlotta Case's essay. Miss Case stated that, step by step, what was in man was developed by means of nature and came out as science, art and religion. Only that which was in it only those studies which struck the chords of the soul could draw forth its harmonies.

"What," inquired the young lady "is the object of our colleges and universities. Is it not to make noble men and women capable of carrying on the affairs of human life? Those who give most to the world are those whose work and study have passed over into character. For only that which has become a part of the man can be given out again. Doubtless Edison would never have invented the telephone if he had spent his time studying Greek, Latin, German or French. When Agassiz determined to study fish, he put aside all else, went to a small island of Massachusetts and with a company of students spent the summer working with fish."

One of our most prominent naturalists, Professor Agassiz of New Jersey, in telling the story of his youth, says he was called "Agassiz" at school in the little village where he lived. He was kept in the beginning class year after year, because the teacher said he could not be taught anything. At last a teacher came who encouraged his interest in flowers, plants, and animals. The result was "Agassiz's Fishes," "The Book," Agassiz's Flower Analysis, and many others on natural history. What has the Jack-of-all-Trades and Master of None accomplished. He may have been

I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and several bottles of the 'Pellets.' ## TRUSTEES ARE TAKEN TO TASK. ON THE TRAIL OF MR. MACKIE.

The Municipal League Makes an Explanation of the Bond Deal.

ALAMEDA, May 18.—The Executive Committee of the Municipal League met Wednesday night and discussed the bond proposition with Trustees Mackie and Schulte. After a protracted discussion the members decided that nothing could be done in the premises. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, There are in the city of Alameda many citizens and taxpayers who deem it for the best interests of the city that certain improvements be made covering the necessities of our public schools, our free library and the Webster street roadway, and that bonds to the extent of $50,000 be issued therefor; and

"Whereas, It has been apparent for months that the demand for these improvements is so widespread as to embrace a large majority of the electors of Alameda; and

"Resolved, That the Executive Board of the Municipal League of Alameda hereby condemns the action of the two members referred to in voting against the proposed ordinance, thereby denying to the people the right to pass upon the question."

"Resolved, That the said members by their official acts have denied to the people their right to express their wishes at the polls, and that in voting against the proposed ordinance they committed an act which was subversive of the principles of true republicanism and was calculated to bring into disrepute the city of Alameda, and that the Municipal League of Alameda, in its capacity as a body of citizens, should condemn the action of the said members, and that it should encourage the citizens to a right to vote on the proposition, thereby encouraging the efforts of the said members to bring about the passage of the ordinance, thus causing an expense of advertising, and who, notwithstanding this encouragement, cast his vote against the measure, thereby defeating it."

TRUSTEES MEET ACCUSED OF AT HAYWARDS. POISONING HOGS.

Decoto Man Fears That Livermore Farmer Has Growners Will Get Poor Prices. His Neighbor Arrested.

HAYWARDS, May 18.—The Town Trustees held a short meeting Wednesday evening, and after transacting urgent business adjourned out of respect to their late President.

Charles Meyer was unanimously elected as President to fill the chair made vacant by the death of the late John Haas.

The committee consisting of Messrs. Peterson, Brunner and Russell was appointed to draft a code of rules to govern the actions of the members and employees of the board.

This action was taken in order to make more definite the duties of the officers of the board. It is understood that the rules will require that the officers make reports to the board at regular intervals.

The Clerk was instructed to notify the managers of the Meek estate that the was due on the permit which the estate had secured to tap the main line sewer for irrigation purposes.

Town Clerk Obermiller stated that there was no safe place in which to keep the valuable papers and records of the town. Trustees Brunner and Powell were appointed a committee to see what could be done in the matter and if possible to provide for the safe keeping of the documents.

The meeting then adjourned.

CHERRIES RIPENING. John Obermiller, agent for the Simpson & Mack Fruit Company of Los Angeles, shipped 1,500 pounds of cherries to that city yesterday. The fruit was picked in the morning and packed in crates for shipment.

COUPLE MARRIED. Miss Kate Hansen and Charles Westman, both of this place, were married last Monday in San Francisco. The bride is the proprietor of the Del Monte saloon. The couple will make their home in Hayward.

FUNERAL OF JOHN WILTZ. The funeral of John Wiltz of Moraga Valley took place yesterday morning from the Presbyterian Church at that place. Rev. George W. Lyons officiated. The interment was in Lone Tree Cemetery.

PERSONAL. Town Marshal J. W. Ramage, who received a broken arm in an accident recently, is fast recovering. He was able to go down town yesterday.

DECOTO. DECOTO, May 18.—John Carr, a prominent fruit grower of this section, visited San Francisco yesterday in order to contract his gooseberry crop to the cannery.

Mr. Fontana of the cannery combination refused to make any offer on the crop, stating that he preferred to buy what he wanted at the market. He said that the county will fall in line and fight the cannery trust.

"Fontana talked to me as though I were a man up a tree," said Mr. Carr in speaking of his visit. "He said he thought there were lots of gooseberries and he could buy all he wanted cheap. I told him that if he wanted to buy them he was to come to the market. He said that he was not going to do that. He said that he was not going to do that. He said that he was not going to do that."

TEMPERANCE WOMEN WILL HOLD MEETING. The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a public meeting on May 25th, at the Methodist Church in East Oakland. Mrs. St. John of Kansas will speak.

WIFE AND SERVANT. A minister gives his experience with coffee drinking and its effect on his health, but requests that if his name be used, his residence be omitted, and only furnished in reply to inquiries that may be addressed to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., at Battle Creek, Mich.

He says he had catarrh of the stomach and dyspepsia, caused by drinking coffee. By advice of the physician he left off coffee for a few years and drank hot water. "In visiting one of the homes of my congregation about a year and a half ago, I was introduced to Postum Food Coffee, the lady of the house saying that tea and coffee had very badly affected her health, and that since she had used both and used Postum Food Coffee she was very much improved in health."

"I tried a cup of it and found no bad effects following. On my return home I got a package and enjoyed its use very much better than either tea or coffee, it having none of the harsh taste of those beverages. I took to it at once, and in the morning and night and found it benefited me in a most marked way."

"Our children enjoy it and keep healthy and well. My wife and the servant have both stopped the use of coffee and enjoy Postum better than the former. As you will observe, the entire family have been improved in health by making the change." The minister's name is Rev. David T. Robertson.

Postum Food Coffee has a well defined work in rebuilding the nervous system that has been broken down by the use of coffee. This is particularly noticeable in highly organized individuals. The Postum is made from pure grains and selected parts that contain phosphate of potash are used.

The delicate particles thus obtained from nature are known by chemists to unite with the albumen of food, from which the gray matter that fills the brain and nerve centers is made. There is a true and scientific reason why Postum Food Coffee strengthens the user, both mentally and physically, and these facts can be proven in any case where a trial of ten days or two weeks will be given.

LIVERMORE, May 18.—A fire started in the dry grass along the country road north of Greenville yesterday and burned about a half acre of barley owned by J. C. Goeken before it was extinguished. The fire was caused by a cigarette in the grass.

NEWS NOTES. J. C. Matten and wife are spending a few days in Santa Cruz.

Chris Goeken was arrested by Constable Fitzgerald yesterday on a warrant sworn to by Nicholas Livermore, a valuable partner in his hog raising business, one of which died. Goeken was released on furnishing bonds.

SAN LEANDRO. SAN LEANDRO, May 18.—Joseph Fulton, a schoolboy, fell while attempting to make a high pole vault yesterday morning and broke his right wrist. He was taken to his home, where the fracture was reduced by Dr. Miller.

BASS. The Presbyterian Church has just been thoroughly renovated and refitted. The interior of the building has been repainted and refitted, and now presents a most attractive appearance. The carpets were laid yesterday, completing the renovation.

The money with which the improvements were made was raised at an entertainment given by the ladies of the church. A small balance remains, which it is proposed to make the nucleus of a fund for painting the exterior of the building. Rev. J. J. Anderson is now pastor of the church.

TO TAKE CENSUS. Harold A. Miller, son of Dr. J. H. Miller, has been appointed an appointment as census enumerator of the city of Alameda in this district. The appointment was made by Professor Plehn.

ELMHURST. ELMHURST, May 18.—The two new cars now being constructed by the Electric Company will differ in many respects from any of the cars now in use on this coast. In the matter of seats they will present a decided innovation, being provided with a newly patented make known as the "walk over" seat. These seats from the seats on the other cars now in use on the line in many points. There is no arm on the side of the seat next the aisle, thus making it much easier for passengers to leave their seats and also making it unnecessary for the person sitting next the aisle to get up whenever his fellow seatmate wishes to leave the car. The seats are also provided with patent backs, which instead of turning over are merely shoved backward or forward.

Instead of the straps with which most cars are provided to hold passengers, the new cars are provided with a device which will hold the passenger in place without the use of straps. The device is a small band attached to the side of each seat, to which the passenger is forced to stand may hold.

NEWS NOTES. Mrs. G. H. Lucke, wife of Assistant Superintendent of the Hayward electric line, is spending a week at the home of her mother in San Lorenzo.

F. H. Balbot, who owns a large ranch at the head of the Stanley Colne, recently purchased a large bill of lumber for the construction of a barn on his property.

John Louderman has purchased a bill of lumber from the E. B. & A. L. Stone company, and is erecting a barn upon his property in the Moss tract.

ACKER'S Dyspepsia Tablets are sold with a positive guarantee. Lures heart-burn, raising of the food, distress after eating or any form of dyspepsia. One table is sold with a positive guarantee, and so on. Osgood Bros., Seventh and Broadway.

LIVELY CONTEST TO SUCCEED MARKHAM. There is a lively contest in progress over the principalship of the Tompkins school. Professor Markham, who is away on leave of absence, has not yet returned. Mr. Walton, who is acting as principal, has four votes pledged to her and so has J. C. Hunter, who is seeking the place. It is said that three directors are undecided.

Cold Steel or Death. "There is but one small chance to save your life, and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. E. Hunt of Lime Ridge, W. V. by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters for Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, and now she is a healthy, happy woman. It is positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, and never disappoints. Price 50c at Osgood Bros' drug store, Seventh and Broadway.

Cutter's Place. Is cool, restful and a rendezvous for old friends and good liquors. 43 Ninth street.

Will Play Baseball. The Reliance baseball team will meet the Walsh & O'Brien club Sunday afternoon at Freeman's Park, Napa County.

EXPRESS THE OLD STARD.

What Local Christian Endeavorers are Doing.

The regular monthly conference of the Junior Union was held Monday afternoon, May 15th, in the parlors of the First M. E. Church. But few attended, though important business was transacted.

Arrangements were made for the next Quarterly Jr. Convention to be held in the First M. E. Church, upper Fruitvale, on Friday, June 1st, at 11 o'clock, and at the close adjournment will be made to the open air and a basket luncheon will follow. A good program is under way.

The officers of the Junior Union were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Stanley Rich, First M. E. So. Church; Vice President, Carey Hill, Tenth Avenue Baptist Church; Corresponding Secretary, Ada Lewis, First Christian Church, Alameda; Recording Secretary, Raymond Ingraham, First Christian Church, Alameda; Corresponding Secretary, Hughes, A. M. J. Church, Oakland; Treasurer, Franklin Palmer, First Congregational Society. These officers will be installed at the Junior Convention, which will be held on Tuesday, June 12th.

The Alameda County Court House held last Friday, May 12th, in the Court Street Congregational Church, was an interesting one, and a large representation of the Christian Endeavorers was present. They were addressed by Mrs. Arnold of Berkeley, Rev. Dwight E. Rogers of Alameda, Rev. Knappell and others.

Mrs. Arnold laid stress on the work with children, and urged to see an immortal soul in every boy and girl we meet. Her work should supplement that of the Sunday School.

Rev. Knappell said, among other things: "There is no time for the good but timid Christian. We want Christians who are good for something. There is a lack of definite soul winning work. Use the definite Christian Endeavorers, winning associate members. Some of the obstacles to this kind of work are: criticism, lack of a deep seated purpose in the trust, highest sense there must be earnest prayer, a consistent life, active church work—and all these must be crowned by personal work for the salvation of souls."

Rev. Knappell was a substitute for Rev. Seaton, who was unable to attend. He eulogized in the highest terms the Christian Endeavor movement. However, there may be dangers that threaten:

1. Stop at good conventions.

2. Do things merely for the force of habit.

3. Neglect attendance on church services.

METCALF HAS KEPT PLEDGES.

Plans to Complete Work on the Tidal Canal.

The San Francisco Post under an Oakland date line last evening contained the following concerning Congressman Metcalf:

"Congressman V. H. Metcalf's friends are indignant over the way in which, as they state, his policy in regard to the tidal canal has been misrepresented."

"They claim that he is not guilty of a single one of the charges against him, which have been published, and that his conduct or motives have either been maliciously misstated or ignorantly misconstrued. And in this absence he is not without earnest and able champions."

"These people say that Mr. Metcalf has done everything he pledged himself to do while he was seeking election, and that in no instance has his course in the canal controversy been at variance with his anti-election attitude."

"He promised that if nominated and elected he would do everything in his power to promote the completion of the canal, and he has faithfully lived up to that promise. Upon his arrival at Washington he went to the War Department and at once secured that any portion of the construction of the bridge across the canal and also for the diversion of Sausalito Creek, which would be necessary for the construction of the canal proper, be given assurance that the work will be pushed to completion."

"Then he introduced a concurrent resolution which had no bearing whatever upon the tidal canal, but referred to the widening and deepening of the channel west of Webster-street bridge and the excavation of the tidal basin. He has since secured that any portion of the appropriation now available be used for that purpose, but has always believed that the money now on hand should be used by the Government for the tidal canal exclusively."

"There has been no change in Mr. Metcalf's views since his election, and he is a defender, and he proposes to live up to every pledge he made to the people of Alameda."

A dispatch from Washington dated yesterday says:

"Representative Metcalf arrived today from California, and will remain here until adjournment. Tomorrow morning he will visit the War Department to urge that bids be advertised for at once for work on the tidal canal, which funds have been appropriated and are now on hand. Representative Metcalf wants the contract let to the extent of the funds now available. He will also push a number of pension bills and the bill providing for the reinstatement of Captain Hutton of Berkeley."
